ANNUAL REPORT FROM THE DIVER MEMORIAL LIBRARY

Angela Ross-Hixon spoke about the many positive changes she has seen over the years since she moved to the Schaghticoke area. The library just celebrated its 80th Anniversary this past fall. The Director of the Library, Nick Matulis, spoke about the expansion of the library programs from 37 in 2007 to 106 in 2019. He is focusing on making connections with everyone that comes in from helping the elderly who may not have family in the area to making a record the kids wrote and keeping the kids engaged in the 2 months of the summer when school is out.

REPORTS FROM DEPARTMENT HEADS

Chris Kelly, Town Historian, spoke about her research on the many farms the Baucus family owned, including the land the Town Hall is on. Most of the sons were involved in local government, agriculture and business.
