REPORTS FROM DEPARTMENT HEADS

Chris Kelly, Town Historian, commented that this being the 23rd anniversary of the 9/11 attack that most people remember what they were doing at the time they heard of the attack that day. The 250th anniversary of the Continental Congress is also approaching. The 13 original colonies were being taxed by England and they needed to stick together to create resolutions which was the starting to function of our government. There is a local LOGO contest for the upcoming 250th Anniversary of the American revolution.

Shawn Hayes, Highway Superintendent, gave his highway, water and sewer report. He met with the Trout on Barton Road regarding getting engineered plans to replace the covert and repair Barton Road.
